Empowering Lives Through Visible Recovery

Are you passionate about recovery and inspiring positive change? Do you have lived experience of addiction and recovery, either personally or through supporting a loved one?

We are looking for a Recovery Group Facilitator to join our Recovery Academy team, supporting people to achieve and sustain abstinence-based recovery. Using your lived experience, compassion, and strengths-based approach, you will facilitate recovery groups, deliver workshops, provide one-to-one support, and help individuals build the confidence, resilience and recovery capital needed to create lasting change.

This is an exciting opportunity to:

- Facilitate recovery-focused groups and peer support sessions.
- Inspire hope and promote positive recovery journeys.
- Support people to access volunteering, training, employment and community opportunities.
- Work within a supportive, trauma-informed and recovery-focused team.
- Help shape and develop recovery services through co-production and peer-led approaches.

We're looking for someone with excellent interpersonal skills, experience of recovery or support work, and a genuine belief that recovery is possible for everyone. Lived experience of addiction and recovery is essential.

Ready to make a difference?

Apply now and help us build a culture of recovery, resilience, and empowerment.
